Cures Consumption!

Dear Sirs:—After reading your advertisement I bought a bottle of your whiskey, which helped me right away. I am now on my third bottle, feeling like a new man. I think that if I had known of your whiskey when I was at home in Chicago, I would have never come out here for my health.

ED. SCHUBARTH, 1008 Market St., Denver, Colo., April 14, 1903.

Stopped Hemorrhage.

Nachua City, N. H., Sept. 11, 1902.

Gentlemen:—It is with great pleasure that I write to inform you that I have used eight bottles of your Pure Malt Whiskey. I would not have been here today only for your wonderful medicine. I have used all kinds of medicine and been under the care of doctors. I have had three severe attacks of hemorrhage and pneumonia, which have led me with a bad cough and weak heart. I am 67 years old. It has taken me six months and stopped the hemorrhages and I cough but very little. I only regret that I did not know of your whiskey before. I cannot express what it has done for me. I beg to remain, Yours respectfully,

MRS. H. A. WASHINGTON.

Thousands of such letters are received from patients who have been cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Caution.—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous dealers, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, will sell you cheap imitations, and so called Malt Whiskey substitutes, which are put on the market for profit only, and which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's" and be sure you get it. It is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Look for the trade-mark, "The Old Chemist," on the label.

The genuine Pure Malt Whiskey is

or direct at $1.00 a bottle. Refuse imitations and substitutes, there is none just as good as "Duffy's." It is the only whiskey recommended by the Government as a medicine. Valuable medical booklet sent free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y.

SHARE THE JOYS.

Don't kill the birds, the early birds, That hop around your door; Each meal the little birds eat A hundred bugs or more.

He sits around with supper meek, Until the bug hath neared, Then shoot forth his little tongue Like lightning, double-steered.

And then he solemnly doth wink, And shuts his ugly eyes, And patiently doth wait until There comes another bug.

ROOSEVELT RAMBLES IN NATURE'S REALM.

With the Naturalist He Plunges Into Fastnesses, Exploring Yellowstone Park.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 9.—President Roosevelt is in the fastness of Yellowstone park and for the next 16 days he expects to enjoy complete rest and cessation from public duties. He will be in almost daily communication with Secretary Loeb at Cinnabar but nothing except of the utmost importance will be referred to him. In company with John Burroughs, the naturalist, who accompanied him from Washington, he will study closely the nature of the various animals that inhabit the park. The president has looked forward to this outing for sometime and he was in a particularly happy frame of mind when he led the cavalcade into the park today. Every trail leading into the park will be closely guarded and no one will be allowed to disturb the president's solitude. His headquarters will be at the home of Major Pitcher, the superintendent of the park. Several camps have been established in different localities and these will be occupied by the president from time to time.

The special train bearing the president and his party arrived at Gardiner, the entrance to the park, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon and was met by a detachment of the Third cavalry and a number of cowboys. Maj. Pitcher also was on hand to welcome the president. Luncheon was served in the president's car after which dressed in riding breeches and coat, with a colored slouch hat on his head, he mounted his horse and made a brief speech to the people congregated near his train. He then bade the members of his party good-bye and led the way into the park. Mr. Burroughs followed in an army wagon. The train returns to Cinnabar, where Secretary Loeb and the remainder of the party will live in it while the president is absent.

The president will start on his trip to St. Louis and the Pacific coast on April 24. The weather here is very mild and reports from the park are to the effect that there is but little snow in the vicinity of the president's headquarters.

THE COST OF "VICTORY."

The New York World directs attention to the fact that during the Spanish American war, the Spanish bonds sold below 30. At the same time British bonds had reached the maximum of 113 7/8, having gained on an average more than a point a year since there were "converted" in 1888. Soon after peace was declared, Spain found her credit unexpectedly and greatly improved, the year of 1902 Spanish bonds rose to 91 1/2. In the meanwhile Great Britain was engaged in the Boer war and her securities swelled in volume by the cost of killing. As a result during the year of 1902 Great Britain's bonds led the Spanish 4's by only 2 points and the British bonds have recently declined below 90, well beneath the Spanish maximum. The World well says that "some victories cost more than some defeats." The loss of her colonies was the best thing that could have happened to Spain and it will be many years before Great Britain will be exempt from the payment of penalty for her destruction of the two republics of South Africa.—The Commoner.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Crawford Bros.

THE HAMPTON MONUMENT.

The legislature passed a bill at the last session appropriating $20,000 to build a monument to the late Hon. Wade Hampton, provided so much as $10,000 be raised by private subscriptions. The commissioners appointed by Gov. Heyward to carry out the provisions of the bill have formulated the following plan to raise the $10,000 that must be secured before the $20,000 appropriation is available. The following is the plan:

The Confederate camps in each county are requested to recommend five suitable persons in their respective counties to be appointed by us as a county committee to collect and forward the quotas requested from the several counties. We feel that this is a privilege rightly belonging to the comrades of the deceased chieftain.

The sons of the veterans are urged to unite with their fathers in this work, for in honoring Hampton they honor their parents. The Daughters of the Confederacy and the rest of the patriotic women of the State, who have ever been instant in ministering to the heroes of the Lost Cause when living and commemorating their valor when dead, and have in many ways already testified to their love for Wade Hampton, need not be urged to make this the crowning effort of their patriotic devotion.

The public at large will esteem it a privilege to testify to their admiration for one who in war and peace was the embodiment of the spirit and genius of South Carolina.

Wade Hampton's long life of more than four score years was devoted to the service of his State. In early manhood he was a safe counsellor in the General Assembly. When South Carolina led in secession, it matters of state that this policy was not followed by him to be wise. He was the first to draw his sword on shed his blood, bearing the name and honor of his native State far in the forefront of battle, achieving for her and himself a reputation for valor that extended throughout two continents—wherever the story of the struggle was told.

In the political revolution of 1875 it was Hampton's wisdom and prudence, coupled with his determination, that gained one victory. As Governor of his State and as her Senator in the halls of Congress he showed himself a statesman of the highest rank.

In declining years he was the sage offering counsel from the abundance of his wisdom and experience.

And at the last, when he had fought the good fight and had finished his course, he tranquilly yielded up his life breathing the prayer, "All my people, black and white, God bless them."

Though Wade Hampton lives in history and in the hearts of his countrymen, and needs no monument to remind them of his life and works, they feel that they owe it to themselves to erect a noble equestrian statue in the Capitol grounds, so that strangers seeing it may be reminded of this son of South Carolina, who lived her with heart and soul, who would, like Leonidas have cheerfully fallen in obedience to her laws, and like Washington lived to bring order from chaos, prosperity to her industry and peace to her people.
